NEW YORK:
Charles C. Shelley, Printer, 68 Barclay Street.
MDCCCLXXI.

408 State Street, Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 26, 1871.

I beg respectfully to inform my friends and the Coin collectors generally, that I have given up my store in New York, and intend, until I can make fresh arrangements, to carry on my business at the above address.

I shall be glad to receive any orders or communications from my numerous supporters, and still more gratified if any of them should pay me a visit.

Trusting that the kind and generous support I have hitherto received may still be continued

Faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN
